February Meeting:

Jess Wilson will lead a discussion about the macro influences that are contributing to the severe volatility and decline in the stock market. As a group we'll discuss our opinions of where we are in the economic cycle and then develop some ideas about which sectors might offer opportunities for a rebound. Along with a sector review we'll discuss the merits of small cap versus mid or large cap opportunities as well as ETF or mutual fund investing.

If you are receiving this monthly meeting notice but are not interested in attending please send me an email with the word Remove in the subject box. I will remove your name from the mailing list.
